

Is the “Conflict of Interest Movement” Impeding Medical Innovation?

Monday Feb. 15 - 4:00 - 5:30 pm – H.F. DeLuca Forum, Wisconsin Institutes for Discovery Building, 330 N. Orchard St, Madison

Presentation by Dr. Thomas Stossel, Harvard University, Author of *Pharmaphobia

Dr. Stossel argues that a "conflict-of interest-movement," is shaping public opinion, stifling innovation, and progress in medicine.

--A panel discussion with UW scientists and officials will follow his talk.--
